Doggy Bag-

Some questions to chew on:

1. What stood out to you the most from this message on Ephesians 6 and from this "Belongers" series? What areas of your life need a new wardrobe?
2. Do you try to be strong all the time? How might admitting your need for help and your inability to do it alone give an opportunity for God to work?
3. What are your thoughts surrounding what Paul is saying about the devil and powers of evil in the world? Why is it important not to see other human beings as the enemy?
4. Being honest with yourself, do you tend to be more of a source of good news or negativity?
5. What relationships in your life—with God or with others—have you been neglecting and need some attention?
6. Where do you feel like you are doing well with armor in being protected? Where do you need God's help?
7. How could what you "wear" as a follower of Jesus help to change people's perceptions of Christians and the Church? How might you begin to impact your community and world—for the better?

Belongers "Follow Wear" Pastor Kris Beckert
