Doggy Bag-

Some questions to chew on:

1. What stood out to you the most from this message? What have you heard before? What was new or different?
2. Has there ever been a time you felt wronged by someone but you discovered your feelings had more to do with you than with them?
3. How does clarifying the specific issue you want to address help you in having a conversation with someone?
4. How do you know you may need to redefine the relationship after approaching someone or having multiple conversations? What is our part? What is God's part?
5. Reflect and apply: What is one conversation you've been avoiding? Have you asked for wisdom of 1-3 people outside the situation and owned your part? What is your hopeful outcome of the conversation? What help do you need from God?

Conflicted "Part III: Know Your Outcome" Pastor Kris Beckert

I. Jesus' instructions on how to handle conflict:

Part I. Have a conversation

Part II. Check the Reality

Part III. Know _____

Matthew 18:15-18 If your brother or sister sins against you, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. ¹⁶ But if they will not listen, take one or two others along, so that 'every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.' ¹⁷ If they still refuse to listen, tell it to the church; and if they refuse to listen even to the church, treat them as you would a pagan or a tax collector. ¹⁸ Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

- v.17 Jesus tells us not every conversation will be received well or will go how we want
- That's why it's important to prayerfully figure out your hopeful _____

II. What does it mean to know your outcome and how does that help?

1. Knowing your outcomes helps determine

“ _____ ”

- Not every offense requires a conversation
- It may be your issue, not theirs
- If you can't determine a hopeful outcome or what you actually desire is vague, then you need to explore deeper before having the conversation

2. Knowing your outcomes helps determine

“ _____ ”

- What specific issue does the conversation need to address?
- Three categories of issues to talk about:
 1. The event/issue and its _____
 2. A pattern of _____
 3. The _____ itself

3. Knowing your outcomes helps determine

- v.17 “treat them as you would a pagan or a tax collector” means to _____

- Three potential outcomes of a hard conversation:

1. One face-to-face conversation _____ the conflict
2. It's going to take _____ conversations to work it out
3. It just doesn't work and we need to _____ the relationship

v.18 “Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

- Jesus is saying that how we handle things and people on earth can have _____ consequences
- We need to take conflict seriously
- Conversation gives us the ability to change the relationship and loosen shackles of _____
