Doggy Bag-

Some questions to chew on:

1. What stood out to you the most from this message? Was there anything new you learned?
2. Have you ever experienced conflict in a church? What happened? What did you learn? How did you grow?
3. Why does our attitude and praying for the person matter when we are facing a conflict with someone? What difference does prayer, having a godly attitude, and aiming for a God-honoring goal make when talking to the person or party?
4. What did Paul and Barnabas' later reconciliation show you?
5. What did God teach you through this series? What is one take-away? What help do you need from God?

Conflicted

“Part IV: And In All Things... Love”

Pastor KC Schroeder

How did the Early Church address conflict and apply Jesus' teaching?

Acts 15:30-41 So the men were sent off and went down to Antioch, where they gathered the church together and delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup> The people read it and were glad for its encouraging message. <sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas, who themselves were prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the believers. <sup>33</sup> After spending some time there, they were sent off by the believers with the blessing of peace to return to those who had sent them. <sup>34</sup> But Silas decided to remain there. <sup>35</sup> But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, where they and many others taught and preached the word of the Lord. <sup>36</sup> Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us go back and visit the believers in all the towns where we preached the word of the Lord and see how they are doing.” <sup>37</sup> Barnabas wanted to take John, also called Mark, with them, <sup>38</sup> but Paul did not think it wise to take him, because he had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in the work. <sup>39</sup> They had such a sharp disagreement that they parted company. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus, <sup>40</sup> but Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the believers to the grace of the Lord. <sup>41</sup> He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

V. Relating to One Another in the Church

- In Essential Beliefs: _____

“There is one Body and one Spirit...there is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God and Father of us all...” (Ephesians 4:4-6)

- In Non-Essential Beliefs: _____

“Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on disputable matter...Who are you to judge someone else's servant? To his own master he stands or falls....So then each of us will give an account of himself to God...So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God.” (Romans 14:1, 4:12, 22)

- In All Our Beliefs: _____

“...If I hold in my mind not only all human knowledge also the very secrets of God, and if I have the faith that can move mountains – but have no love, I amount to nothing at all.” (1 Corinthians 15:2)

Big Idea: _____

Karl “KC” Schroeder serves as a licensed minister in the Nazarene Mid-Atlantic District, balancing his calling with his outside professional life. A bi-vocational “recovering engineer,” he finds joy in preaching at various churches across the district while actively contributing to the ministry of his home congregation, Crossroads Church of the Nazarene in Ellicott City, Maryland. Within Crossroads, he pastors the 55+ community and supports the small groups ministry, and lends his expertise to managing the sound system during services when needed.

KC is passionate about guiding others in their spiritual journey, fostering growth through Bible study, discipleship, and the bonds of friendship and fellowship. His educational background includes bachelor's and master's degrees in engineering from Virginia Tech and Loyola University in Maryland, respectively. Professionally, KC works as a technical leader for the public sector and shares his knowledge as an adjunct professor at Stevenson University in Maryland. Beyond his professional and ministerial commitments, KC remains active in his community as an adult leader in a local Boy Scout troop. Married to Jen, KC finds fulfillment in his family life, raising two sons, Robby, who is in his second year of college, and Ian, who is in his third year of high school. In his leisure time, KC indulges his creative side, playing the saxophone in the jazz genre.
