Doggy Bag-

Some questions to chew on:

1. What is one thing that stood out to you in this message that you needed to be reminded or you hadn't thought about before?
2. Why is it important to recognize that the freedom God gives is not just for you? In what ways can someone have lots of freedom but still be captive?
3. What difference does it make to remember who you are before deciding what to do? How does remembering your need for grace impact how you interact with others?
4. How has God freed you? How might God use your experience of freedom to share that freedom with another?
5. Why do many of our ideas, intentions, and even our callings fall by the wayside without practice? What in your life needs practice now so God can use it later?
6. From what do you need God's help to set you free? Are you waiting for someone else to set the stage when God is calling you?

Philemon Freedom “Part I: Setting the Stage” Pastor Kris Beckert

Two Questions:

- From what do you need God's help to set you free?
- Are you waiting for someone to set the stage when God is calling you?

I. Setting the Stage for Philemon:

- Letter written by _____ around 60-62 AD
- Letter written to _____, who was a wealthy Roman citizen in Colossae who came to faith in Christ and led a house church with his wife
- He also owned _____
- Philemon's slave _____ had run away, met up with Paul, and came to faith in Christ
- Paul writes letter in order to _____
- A curious question: Who in the story actually needs to be set free?

II. Setting the Stage for Freedom:

1. Remember _____

If you'd like to talk personally and confidentially w/Pastor Kris about your relationship with Christ, please email pastorkris@tablelifechurch.org or call Philemon 1:1-3 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and fellow worker—² also to Apphia our sister and Archippus our fellow soldier—and to the church that meets in your home:³ Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

- Captive to _____ alone (v.1)
- Defined by _____ and how you help (v.1)
- Connected to _____ (v.2)
- In need of _____ & _____ (v.3)

2. How God has _____

Philemon 1:4-5 I always thank my God as I remember you in my prayers,⁵ because I hear about your love for all his holy people and your faith in the Lord Jesus..

- God has done a work in Philemon and changed him.
- God frees us _____ but also frees us _____
- Often our greatest ministry is connected to our greatest _____

3. What you _____

Philemon 1:6-7 I pray that your partnership with us in the faith may be effective in deepening your understanding of every good thing we share for the sake of Christ.⁷ Your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the Lord's people.

- v.6 “partnership” = koinonia—
- v.7 “refreshing” = anapauó--

III. Setting the Stage for What's Next:

1. Who you are sets the stage for what you'll _____
2. The freedom you've received sets the stage for the freedom _____ need.
3. What you practice now sets the stage for how you'll _____ later.

Big Idea: _____
